Maximum XVI

Is less really more? Not always! Sometimes you simply need to take things to the max. If that's your style, then you can accomplish a real work of art with this collection, featuring wallcoverings in flamboyant and atmospheric designs. Impressionistic canvas paintings bring the beauty of nature into your home, while abstract compositions made up of striking brushstrokes in grey, brass and petrol create a unique ambience. Even the block-colour designs have an artistic feel, in colours and textures that complement their patterned counterparts to superb effect. Luscious flowers and printed floral ornamentation add an extra touch of romance to proceedings. Who would have guessed that you could bring the art scene right into your home with such ease?
