As beautiful as the city of love.

A little luxury here, a little Parisian chic there. The French style of living can move in with us. It's good that this collection is so glossy and has that stylish twist with its shimmering and velvety looks.

Sometimes with baroque ornamentation, sometimes with embroidered patterns, the wallcovering designs charmingly set the scene for the walls of living rooms and bedrooms.

If you prefer a more straightforward look, Trianon also has an elegant stripe in its repertoire, which can be easily combined with the many unifolds. These include soft powder tones and pale shades in blue or grey.

But a warm Bordeaux red and a strong golden yellow are also essential. After all, France is known for its royal treasures, the nostalgic lustre of which beautifully blends into modern homes. You simply have to try it!
