GARBO

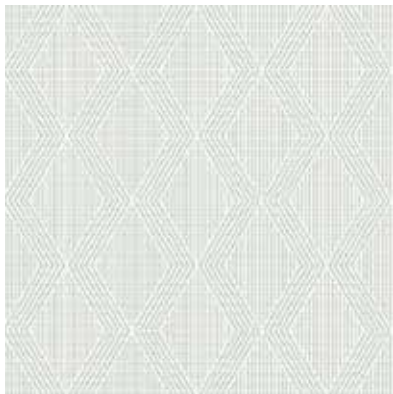

Luxurious and splendid in their appearance, the designs from the 1920s marked an era of new-found optimism after a difficult period in world history. A time of classic elegance, our Art Deco style Garbo wallpaper epitomise the roaring 20s aesthetic. Garbo is recreated in five beautiful colour schemes.

NOCTURNE

Dense, winding foliage in a pleasing muted colour palette characterises our Nocturne wallpapers from the 1940s. Picturesque, timeless and natural motifs with homely charm. Soothing and calm in children's rooms, kitchens and living rooms, the traditional collagraph print enhances the wonderful craftsmanship.

VILDVIN

With the Arts and Crafts Movement in full swing, the beginning of the 20th century saw a move from heavy patterns and dark, rich colours to fresh, light and more cheerful designs. Our Vildvin wallpaper has an unmistakably 1910s vibe to it with its informal meandering vine pattern and choice of three discreet and calm colour palettes.

JANE

Our Jane wallpaper brings to the mind the sweet scents and sights of an English spring day. The 1970s pattern takes much inspiration from the works of 1800s textile designer, William Morris. Blooming flowers and leaves in a mix of shapes and sizes fill the walls to create a warm, fresh interior with retro yet contemporary expressions.
